The Broadway Goes to College

Recently, the Broadway Seniors with Class and staff headed to Nicholls State University to enjoy a delicious breakfast and beautiful campus scenery. For one of our residents it brought back old memories, as he attended 4 years there. The residents greatly enjoyed the trip followed by another stop at The Dollar Tree for some shopping. It was an eventful and beautiful day!

Mr. Oneil Pitre

Resident of the Month

Mr. Oneil has shown great improvement during his time at The Broadway. He has a great attitude. In the afternoon, you can find him outdoors enjoying the cool breeze with his wife and joking around with others.

Jenny Rasid

Employee of the Month

Jenny is very compassionate toward our residents and other team members. She is constantly demonstrating her loving and giving heart. She is eager to help wherever needed. Jenny is a true team player!

Happy Birthday!

The Broadway's Rewards Recipient

Ms. Gwen Charpentier was named our Broadway Rewards Recipient by the Activity Department. She is very generous and always offers her assistance with our monthly birthday parties. She has even baked birthday cakes for residents who didn't have a cake for their birthday party. Your kindness and generosity certainly don't go unnoticed, Gwen! We are blessed to have you on our team.

Happy Anniversary!

Lunch at Lin's in Thibodaux

Broadway residents and staff recently went out to lunch at Lin's Chinese Restaurant in Thibodaux, LA. The residents enjoyed choosing from their wide variety of food, including seafood. Our meals were absolutely delicious!

It was a Good Friday, Indeed

The Broadway Elder Living & Rehabilitation would like to thank Ms. Pat Savoie of Savoie's Pharmacy for the yearly donation of crawfish to our facility on Good Friday. Both residents and staff enjoyed the very generous donation. The day ended with ice cream sundaes prepared by the activity department. We think it was a great Friday!
