Ms. Mae Duet is Turning 100 Years Young!

On July 16, 2017 at 2:00 p.m. the Broadway Elder Living & Rehabilitation will honor Ms. Mae at her 100th Birthday Celebration. Musical entertainment will be provided by Gary T. In preparation of Ms. Mae's birthday extravaganza, we'd like to share a little of Ms. Mae's history.

Ms. Mae Hartman Duet was born on July 7, 1917, in Lockport, Louisiana. She is the daughter of the late Aleda (Barbier) Hartman and Alcide Hartman. She resided in Lafourche Parish her entire life. She was a member of Lady Prompt Succor Catholic Church when she later in life moved to Golden Meadow. Ms. Mae was a caretaker in the Nursery at the Lady of the Sea Hospital. She wed the late Mr. Leonce Orgeron, with whom she had two beautiful sons, Darryl and Richard. She has 6 grandchildren: Roddy, Toddy, Daralyn, Ricky, Phillip, and Ann. She also has 9 great-grandchildren: Rhett, Cloe, Adam, Sophia, Ryan, Ethan, Natalie, Mason, and Hudson. Later in life, Ms. Mae married the late Mr. Cleophas Duet. A few fun facts about Ms. Mae: her favorite holiday is Christmas, her favorite thing to cook is wild duck, and her hobbies include gardening, getting her hair done, and dancing.

We are getting very excited to celebrate a century of this wonderful woman! We are honored to have you, Ms. Mae.

Thank you for choosing The Broadway as your home!

Ms. Dale Daigle

Resident of the Month

Ms. Dale has made a lot of progress since arriving at The Broadway. She recently decided to do a full makeover and cut her hair into a short, stylish new 'do! Her personality has blossomed and her smile is contagious. She looks absolutely beautiful. Congrats, Ms. Dale!

Destiny Gabriel

Employee of the Month

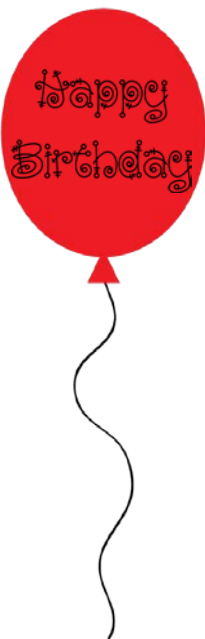

Destiny is very humble and takes exceptional care of our residents. She is always willing to lend a helping hand where needed. Congrats, Destiny, and thank you for all you do!

Happy Birthday!

Thank You, TCC!

The Broadway received a visit from the incredible employees of the Verizon retailer, TCC, from Cut Off last month when they delivered boxes of goodies for our residents. The gifts included art supplies such as crayons, paints, coloring books, scissors, and ink pens. We send a huge thank you to them for this act of kindness - The Broadway's residents will definitely put the items to good use!

Happy Anniversary!

Hanging Out in Houma

The Broadway’s residents and staff enjoyed a lunch outing to the Ocean Star Buffet in Houma last month. Everyone in attendance was pleased with their wide array of delicious food to choose from. While the group was there, they took advantage of an opportunity to “pay it forward” to the Terrebonne Parish Police Department. After lunch, everyone headed to peruse the sales at the Family Dollar store. Our last trip before heading home was to the St. Vincent de Paul Thrift Center to view their broad selection of goods. It was a fantastic day had by all!
