Supporting the Fighters, Admiring the Survivors, Honoring the Taken, and Never Giving up Hope

In honor of last month being recognized as Breast Cancer Awareness Month, The Broadway would like to dedicate this page to the incredibly brave women who have battled breast cancer. Photos below are of women who are either family members, friends, or former employees of The Broadway. Some of the women pictured below lost the battle with breast cancer, and some are survivors of the disease, but this is certain: each of them are strong, valiant women.

Ms. Susan Dandry

Resident of the Month

Ms. Susan is always compassionate, loving, and very kind to everyone she meets. We especially enjoy when she shares her memories of her trip to Egypt. Thank you for choosing The Broadway as your home, Ms. Susan!

Janie Senkulics

Employee of the Month

Janie is a wonderful asset to the Broadway Team. She displays true compassion for all residents at The Broadway, often picks up extra shifts to lend a helping hand, and she is often observed rounding up residents ensuring that they make it to activities. She keeps a positive outlook always and is a pleasure to work with. Congrats, Janie!

Remembering Ms. Rhonda

Ms. Rhonda Simoneaux was a resident of The Broadway who touched the lives of many, many people while here. She made a lasting impression on everyone who met and knew her. One of Ms. Rhonda's favorite activities was putting puzzles together. Strong-willed and determined, she worked very hard in completing each puzzle. While working to complete one of her puzzles, she realized a piece was missing. A while later, the missing piece was finally found and Ms. Rhonda placed the last piece into her puzzle. Later that morning she passed away - her masterpiece was finally complete. We sincerely thank the family of Ms. Rhonda for coming back to the Broadway and organizing her memorial. Ms. Rhonda's masterpiece is in the television area for display. Later, it will be hung on her "Hall 200" in memoriam of her.

We love and miss you, Ms. Rhonda!

Lafourche Parish Aging and Health Fair

Aging and Health - two topics we are always eager to learn more about! The Broadway team had a great time at the Lafourche Parish Government Aging and Health Fair last month. We greatly enjoyed being at the event to represent one of the many wonderful resources for senior citizens in our area.
